MISREPRESENTATION

is the most flagrant business evil of the hour. Scarcely a day passes but instances of the grossest kind are brought to our notice. We know what goes on in our business, and that is one of many reasons why our statements and guarantees amount to something. Our guarantee means that our goods are just as we say they are, whether or not you know anything about them. Our stocks have never been so full, complete, and desirable as now. Going away for the Summer can be made easy if you are wise enough to appreciate

The people are beginning to recognize that our assertions about selling the best Shoes at lowest prizes are pretty near right. We are always particular about the kind of Children's and Misses' Shoes we sell, and our store people take pains to properly fit them. A man or woman can judge for themselves, but many children's feet have been ruined by bad-fitting shoes before any one knew the cause. It's difficult taste that can't be pleased, and an odd foot that can't be fitted

Mayor Lee Toy's Joke. From the Philadelphin Record.

Two the Philadelphia Record.

Lee Toy, the bright young Americanized Mayor of Chinatown, was entertaining a party of local politicians with tales of the Orientaths fiance street store a few overlings ago.

"I supprise you are aware," he said, among other things, "that a Chinaman's most valued and revered possession is his piguid, and that the true Celestini would just about as soon give up his life as part with it. The cutting off of the partail is an extreme penaity in China, issually resorted to for treasonable offences. Well, I have seen a Chinaman have his pigual cut off without uttering a word of complaint."

"He was deaf and dumb, I guess," remarked a listence. a listener.
"No," continued Lee Toy, "they cut his pig-tall off at the neck, and his head went with it,"
